MR. FLKINS GIVES | WILLIAMS OBJECT OUT HATE MEASURE OF NEXT REVOLT

Empowers Interstate Commission to Bring Restraining Suits' in Circuit Courts.

NOT GIVE NOTICE

Provision Made for Prompt Action By the Courts Without Any Formal Pleadings.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, D. C., January 18.— Senator Elkins chairman of the Commit-Senator Euris chairman of the Commit-tee on Interstate Commerce, has made public the bill for the regulation of rail-road rates which he proposes to intro-duce. He makes no claim that it is perfect, but declares it is the best he

By Mr. Elkins' bill the Interstate Comnerce Commission is increased from even to nine members. Expenses of li-States.

Whenever the Interstate Commerce Commission shall be of the opinion that reasonable grounds exist for belleving any rate established or charged by any common carrier for any transportation or other service subject to the act of 1887 is unjust and unreasonable, or that any such carrier is making any unjust discrimination or engaged in any other practice or doing any other act in violation of the law, the commission may instigate a suit or proceeding in equity in the Circuit Court for any district in which the principal office of any carrier defendant is located to retain such carrier.

Suit By the Commission.

The commission, in its discretion, may stitute any such suit or proceeding som its own motion or upon the applition of any person, firm or corporation of interested in the matter com-The commission shall not be required,

The commission shall not be required, before instituting suit, to give notice to the parties defendant or grant a hearing, but it may make such investigation as it may deem proper.

Any suit or proceeding authorized may be instituted by petition, briefly setting forth the matters complained of, and any parties interested in such matters may be made defendant.

The court shall have power to hear and determine such suit or proceeding speedily, without the formal pleadings and proceedings applicable to ordinary suits in equity, and upon such short notice to the defendants as the court shall deem reasonable, but in such manner as to do justice in the premises.

The court may restrain and enjoin the earrier from continuing in force any unjust and unreasonable rate, fare or charge, of from continuing any unjust discrimination or other unlawful act or practice on or after a date to be specified.

MAY PRESCRIBE A PATE The court shall have power to hear and MAY PRESCRIBE A RATE.

In case any carrier shall fail to obey he court the commission shall have sower to make an order directing the arrier to modify the original or the subtituted rate, fare or charge, by putting fluted rate, fare or charge, by putting a force in lieu thereof a just and reason-ble rate prescribed in the order of the ominission, "but the commission shall of have power to modify any original r substituted rate, fare or charge to a reason extent than shall be necessary a order to remove the injustice and un-casonableness or other unlawfulness ierrof."

may order the payment of e commission is empowered to have books of common carriers examined expert accountants and to employ speagents to investigate suspected region but the suspect of the bill provides punishment for rebate are or receiving, according to existing crater cars in transit and the publication of rates for such service.

Common carriers are permitted to enter into agreements to establish or maintain rates, if first approved by the commission, and to select the connecting lines for forwarding shipments.

PRESIDENT TUCKER RETURNS FROM ABROAD

President of the Jamestown Exposition Company Concludes His Exploiting Excursion.

(By Associated Press.) (By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, January 18.—Harry St.

George Tucker, president of the Jamestown, Va., Exposition Company, returned from a trip through Europe in behalf of the exposition to be held in 1907 to-night on board the steamer Majestic.

ONE CENT A MILE FOR C. S. VETERANS' REUNION

(By Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, January 18.—At a meeting of representalities of the trans-continental radiroads, held here to-day, it was decided to make a rate of one cent a mile for the Confederate Veterans re-union at Complaining of Minority Leader's Failure to Let Them Defeat Philippines Bill.

But They Were Frustrated at the Last Moment, and Mr. Williams is Facing Trouble.

HAD PLANS ALL MAPPED OUT

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WASHINGTON, D. C., January 18. Pangs of regret were felt by Democratic Representatives to-day when full realization came of yesterday's lost opportunity to defeat the administration and the "orto defeat the administration and the "organization" in the House.

Those who are loudest in their lamentations place the whole of the blame at the door of the minority leader, Mr. Williams, of Mississippl, It was he, they say, who, yielding to his theories of statesmanship and to his desire to maintain friendly relations with Speaker Cannon, put his foot down on the plan which had been brought to perfection by his Democratic colleagues.

This plan was very simple and its supporters believe it would have been effective. Those who developed the plan obtained the necessary signatures for a Democratic caucus, which was to have been held on Monday night, but Mr. Williams stopped it.

The plan provided that when the vote on the Philippines bill should be called for the Democrats should demand and force a separate vote on the minority subsitute providing immediate free trade between the United States and the Philippines. A solid Democratic vo e would have been recorded in favor of the substitute, but the Republican opponents of the Philippines.

pines. A solid Democratic vo'e would nave been recorded in favor of the substitute, but the Republican opponents of the Philippines bill would not have voted for it, and it would not have passed.

Then the vote would have been demanded on the majority bill.

The plan was that every Democrat should vote against this bill. The insurgent Republicans would have recorded their votes in the same column with the Democrats and the measure would have been defeated.

This, it is held, would have been practical politics; would have defeated the bill, and would have welded the insurrection on the Republican side of the House for the statehood fight which is to come.

There is trouble in store for Mr. Wil

CHILD LABOR IN MINES ENGAGES ATTENTION

United Mine Workers Refer Matter of Employing Boys Under Sixteen to Committee.

(By Associated Press.) INDIANAPOLIS, IND., January 18 .-The United Mine Workers' Convention got down to committee reports to-day. sideration of resolutions and constitutional questions.

A proposition for the convention to de-clare that boys under sixteen years of age shall not be employed in the mines caused an hour's discussion.

caused an hour's discussion.

The matter was finally referred to the Constitution Committee, There are indications that, acting on the suggestions of President Mitchell in his address, this matter will be one of the subjects to be presented to the operators. The convention adjourned until to-morrow.

When the scale committee took up the resolutions submitted to the committee, it was found that with hardly an expense.

t was found that with hardly an ex-ception, the resolutions included demands for increase in wages. Most of the reso-lutions which were presented by dis-trict and local unions, favor demanding the scale committee will be glaced at a figure between the two. There is little doubt that the committee also will demand that the operators incorporate in any contract signed a clause prohibiting the employment of boys in and around the mines.

IS STILL A SLIDING

No Less Than Six Members of the Balfour Ministry Have Been Unseated.

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, January 18.—Rural England is now being polled and is returning Liberals to Parliament with the same enthusiasm as has already been displayed by the towns. Few additional returns are available, as generally the county pollings are not known until the day following the balloting, but those announced show persistent Liberal and labor gains.

Glasgow has gone strongly Liberal, the seven contests there being marked by four Liberal and one labor gain, while the only two Unionists left in the representation are free traders. John Morley, Secretary of State for India, was returned for Montose by a good majority.

Taken altogether, the returns, although less sensational than those previously reported, are most disastrous from the Unionist standpoint, No less than 5 members of the Balfour ministry have been unseated, making the to al number of catinct ministers defeated eleven.

inet ministers defeated eleven.

Since the elections opened the Unionists have gained only three seats, while the Ministerialists have gained 132 seats, The seats up to the present are distributed as follows: Liberals, 202; Unionists, 87; Laborites, 35; Nationalists, 60.

A Richmond Romance

"All the world loves a lover," and everybody likes to read a clever love story. One of the fiction features of the Sunday Times-Dispatch will be a fascinating romance of two valentines, the plot of which is laid on Grace Street, in Richmond. This story is by a talented young Virginia writer.

A Judicious Use of Times-Dispatch Want Ads. Means Money in Your Pocket

This is not a broad statement when it is considered that Times-Dispatch Want Ads. reach the field—the people who can and will buy, or who are in a position to fill

The immense circulation of The Times-Dispatch goes every day into the homes of representative people of every class all through Richmond and all over Virginia, with a sprinkling of hundreds of readers in adjacent States.

The prestige, importance and utility of this progressive modern newspaper has made it the representative paper of Virginia. Hardly a Virginian of any importance fails to read The Times-Dispatch. Among its important advertising and news features there is none more important and more eagerly sought by its readers than Times-Dispatch Want Page, because this page is always alive with good business opportunities, good positions to offer, efficient help for positions open, and good boarding houses for boarding seekers. Besides countless other attractions.

If your advertisement is in Times-Dispatch Want

Ads. it can't be overlooked, and must be effective.

Phone 549 for the Want Ad. man or write to The Times-Dispatch Want Ad. Department for valuable information about want advertising.

OUR PUBLIC PROPERTY.

By CHARLES RICHARDSON, Esq., First Vice-President National Municipal League.

MURDERED MAN HID TO ROOSEVELT WEDDING IDENTITY TWENTY YEARS

Twins She Kissed Eight Years Ago.

BEAUTY BABES INVITED

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) K. Rodgers, 11 years old, and twins, are in receipt of an invitation from Miss Alice Roosevelt to her wedding.

The twins attracted the attention of Presdent Roosevelt and Mrs. Roosevelt about eight years ago at a fair in Oklahoma. The children from their earliest infancy were noted for their beauty, and as babes captured many prizes at baby shows.

It was just after they had been awarded

It was just after they had been awarded first honors at such an exhibition that the President and Miss Roosevelt saw them. They were enraptured with them, and both kissed them.

Miss Roosevelt was so charmed with the little girls and struck with their names that she wrote them down in her note book. That she had not forgotten them is evidenced by the invitation which they now have. They will hardly except the invitation, owing to the modest circumstances of their parents. nodest circumstances of their parents.

LOUISIANA MERCHANT SUICIDES IN KENTUCKY

(By Associated Press.)

LOUISVILLE, January 18.-A specia from Henderson, Ky., says J. B. Nixon, formerly of Hopkinsville, Ky., committed suicide at the Hotel Henderson last night by shooting. His body was found today. He was 35 years of age. He had a new suit case and some small personal belongings, also a polley of insurance for $16,000 payable to his brother, and another policy of $16,000 accident insurance.

In the suit case was found a clipping at the suit case was found a clipping from the New Orleans Picayune, of December 26, 1905. This clipping was dated Pensacola, Fla., December 25, and told of the robbing of Kress and Company's store in that city, of $500 and some other valuables, and saying that the store was set on fire.

Signs of the Times.

The third number of the association course will be given in the Central Y. M. C. A. hall to-night at $550 o'clock by Dr. Thomas E. Green, of Chicago, the noted lecturer and platform orator.

Miss Alice Remembers Handsome | Jesse James, Slain in Oklahoma, Proves to Have Been M. C. Brodright.

> (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) GUTHRIE, OKLA., January 18.-It demurdered at Stillwater, was Martin C Brodright, who disappeared suddenly from Richland Center, Wis., twenty years ago, and was never seen afterward, His identity was traced by means of an Odd Fellowship certificate found in his pocket. His brother, Frank Brodright, arrived from Medina, S. D., to claim the remains. Two sisters live in Milwaukee. Brodright came to Okiahoma at the opening in 1859, and lived by himself, a mysterious individual, thought by his neighbors to be mentally unbalanced. Two weeks ago he quarreled with Frank Houston, of Stillwater, in regard to the pronunciation of a word and was shot and killed by Houston. The latter surrendered, was declared insane, and was piaced in an asylum at Norman. Houston is treasurer of the Oklahoma Grand Lodse of Odd Fellows. A letter from Richland Centre Odd Fellows states that Brodright's mysterious manner of living was inherited from his father, who was of the same nature. Brodright left valuable estate in Payne county, Okia. from Richland Center, Wis., twenty years

EUROPEANS VISIT PRESIDENT FOR PEACE

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., January 18.—
Prominent European statesmen, educators, publicists and citizens, whose fame is world-wide, have joined in a petition to President Roosevelt to endeavor, in the interests of humanity and civilization by such means as may seem proper to him, to bring about "the concert of the powers of Europe, with the view of securing for the subjects of the Ottoman empire a condition of public peace and order."

The President promised to give the ap-The President promised to give the appeal careful consideration.

YOUNG MAN KILLED IN NEW YORK PRIZE FIGHT

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, January 18.—"Kid" Goog, a prize-fighter, was killed in the second round of a three-round bout to-night in a place known as George McFadden's Club, in Third Avenue. The man with whom he was fighting escaped, and the police are looking for him. It is said that Goog's right name is Nathan Rosenberg, and that he is a resident of this city. His opponent was known as "Kid" Eis.

'AMERIGAN LANDS

William E. Walling, of Chicago,

IS RICH IN BRAINS AND MONEY

Victim is Grandson of Democration Candidate for Vice-President in 1880.

NEW YORK, January 18.-News of the arrest in St. Petersburg, of William Eng-Walling, of Chicago, was received here to-day. Mr. Walling went to St. Peans arrested because of his alleged sympathy for and participation with the revo lutionary party. Mr. Walling is interested in social settlement work in this country Mr. Walling is a grandson of William H.
English, who ran for the vice-presidency on the Democratic ticket in 1889.
Steps to Protect Young Man.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., January 18.— William English Walling lives in Chicago, He is a son of Dr. Willoughby Walling, formerly United States consul to Edinformerly United States consult to Editi-burgh, Scotland.

William English Walling, the son, in-herited a considerable part of the vast, estate of his grandfather, William H. English, of this city, and has large prop-erty interests here. He visited his uncle, Captain William E. English, here, a short time before he left this country for Rus-sia last April.

Captain English, who was informed by the Associated Press of his nephew's ar-the Associated Press of his nephew's ar rest, said: "I was not surprised to hea of English's arrest, as he is a devote of English's arrest, as he is a devoted adherent of socialistic principles, and I am sure would be actively engaged in their practical demonstration, the opportunity for which was furnished by the Russan situation.

"He went to Russia to study labor conditions and do some literary work in connection with periodicals in this country, "Of course, the family will take steps

SEWARD WEBB REFUSED TO SUBSCRIBE; ABUSED

Testimony at Town Topics Trial Shows Vanderbilt's Son-in-Law a Victim.

(By Associated Press.)

fective than abuse. Use a rapler rather than a bludgeon. Remember that Town Topics only tells of people who have won distinction."

LIBRARIANS REPORT DESTROYED BY FIRE

Nearly Completed Document in the Damaged Portion of Waddey Plant.

Consternation was caused among the officials of the State Library yesterday when it became known that the plates of the annual report prepared at great labor and some expense had been utterly destroyed in the early morning fire that swept the mechanical plant of the Everett Waddey Printing Company.

While the loss can of course, be easily repaired, it is exceedingly unfortunate at this time when the librarian and his assistants were rushing the report to completion so as to set it at the earliest possible date before the General Assembly. Large developments of the library work are expected to result from the interest capetal and the size of the appropriation to be added will in the present Legislature and the size of the appropriation to be added will be size of the appropriation to be added will be seen the vast good being accomplished by the Library and the exceptional opportunities for development, now thoroughly understood by very few, and was in this way to assist in securing the legislation desired.

When the results of the fire became known yesterday it was found that the seventy or more pages of the report that had been "set up" in type had been destroyed utterly. The original manuscript was recovered, but loaded with water and much resembling a pulp. Is until for use. But by the merest chance Librarian Forance and the original direct, and a large proton of the original direct, and the results of the proper that had been destroyed utterly. The original manuscript was recovered, but loaded with water and much resembling a pulp. Is until for use. But by the merest chance Librarian Forance and the original direct, and the proper through, and this work will all have to be gone over again; work will all have to be gone over again.

AMERICAN LANDS
IN RUSSIAN JAL

William E, Walling, of Chicago
Too Thoroughly Interested in Social Situation.

SRICH IN BRAINS AND MONEY

Wictim is Grandson of Democratic Candidate for Vice-Presi
Tot complete her education.

Voted the young woman $2,500 in cash to complete her education.

This is in addition to the silver medal voted to Miss Titus is the sixteen-year-old daughter of Dr. William Titus. The act of heroism for which she was rewarded was performed on Casca Bay, off Yarmouth, Me., on July 30, 1904.

The girl, with her friend and music teacher, Laura Relfanyder, of East Orange, N. J., was on the yacht went down, and the girls were adrift in a boat, which also overturned, Miss Titus stuck to her friend after all had deserted, and at the risk of her own life brought her to shore.

Since the death of Dr. Titus, Miss Reifsinyder has mide a personal appeal to the Carnegle Here Fund on the subject.

The Carnegle Here Fund Commission

ject.
The Carnegle Hero Fund Commission passed on twenty-seven cases to-day in which application had been made for which application had been made for recognition.

Among those "found not within scope of the fund" were those of many who had aided in the rescue of passengers from the steamer Slocum.

The cases of Captain McDonaid, of North East, Pa., and six seamen of the steamer Sevona, which went to pieces in Lake Superior on September 2, 1395, were also relected.

In Lake Superior on September 2, 1995, were also rejected.

The commission voted to hurry the investigation of the Cherokee disaster of Atlantic City some days ago, and a special agent is already at work on it.

The commission refused to say how many of the Slocum cases had been examined, but the incident is admittedly closed. The commission has 350 cases still under investigation, and to-day put on a new special agent, John P. Cowan, a Pittsburg newspaper man.

ELIJAH" DOWIE NO LONGER HOLDS PURSE

Leader Deposed From Financial Control of Zion City in Effort to Pay Debts.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHICAGO, Jan. 18.-John Alexander

CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—John Alexander, Dowie has been permanently removed from the financial control of the Zion City industries, according to assurances given to big creditors by the financial agents of the community. The appointment of the "Triunrvirate," with great octention, it is now declared, merely cloaked. Dowie's concession to the religious of Zion City and its creditors, that all business affairs be taken from his hands, leaving him only the religious leader.

"Dowie has spent money in a prodigal manner," said a heavy creditor of the religious community to-day. "His trip around the world cost him $1,000, 000. He drew on the treasury for it. The trip to New York cost half as much again. It was given out that the followers paid their own expenses. This was hardly true. The recent trip to Mexico was another expensive luxury for the aged leader. He spent thousands there."

"We have been able to arrange for payment of the more pressing dotts," said Deacon Judd, "and will be able to defer drastic action."

TESTIMONY TAKEN IN MAYBRICK LAND CASE

(By Associated Press.)

(By Associated Press.)

LEXINGTON, KY., January 18.—Deposition of Judge Matthew Walton, of LexIngton, was taken here to-day by Colonel David Armstrong, of New York city,
In the suit of Barcess Von Roques against Colonel Armstrong, Armstrong acted as attorney for Baroness Von Roques, the mother of Mrs. Maybrick, in the sale of lands in Kentucky inherited by the baroness from her father, D. B. Holbrook, of Mobile, Ala. Both she and Mrs. Maybrick were disastisfied with the amount resulting from the land sale and sued Armstrong for a balance claimed to be due. Judge Walton prepared certain papers in the deal and his testimony was sought for that reason.

RUSSIAN POLITICIANS IN FIRST CONVENTION

(By Associated Press.)

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 18.—The first national convention organized by a political party in the history of Russia, that of the Constitutional Democrats, opened here to-day. Two hundred and fifty delegates, representing gixty provincial organizations, were present. The first act of the delegates was significant of the trend of the convention, the temporary chairman, Prof. Karelliff, calling on the assemblage to rise in memory of the victims of January 2d (Red Sunday), several of whom were shot not far from the hall where the convention was held.

Grain Brokers Fail.

(By Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, January 18.—Announcement was made to-day of the suspension of the grain and commission firm of McReynolds & Co., of this city, one of the best known firms on the Board of Trade. The statement is made that the creditors will be paid in full. It was stated that the suspension is due to high office expenses and a poor run of business.

Irish Society Dinner.

(By Associated Press.) (By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, January 18.—The American Irish Historical Society celebrated its annual dinner here to-night. John T. Lawless. of Norfolk, Va., was among the guests.

An Illustration of Tact.

An Illustration of Tact.

A boarding house mistress looked at her latest "guest" with a firm but cheerful expression of countenance, and allowed the faintest hint of a smile to play over her features, says the Youth's Companion. "Oh, no, I never have any trouble with my boarders," she said briskly. "I don't see any need of nagging 'em if they don't do just as they would in their own homes, and as they'd like to be done by; but I generally let them see in some way when I approve of their doings.

"For instance, there was Mr. Cranston, one of my best boarders, a real well meaning young man, but pretty careless. He sits down at the end of the table near those little shelves where I keep my extrachina, and he got in the habit last summer of coming in in a hurry and laying his hat right on the top of the plates.

"Well, it didn't look just right, but I didn't nag him about it. When he'd done it half a dozen times I just put a sheet of sticky fly paper on top of the plates.

"He never said anything about it, for he knew what I meant after that night. That's why I say if folks will use tact they've no need to have any trouble with boarders—not a bit!"

She Survived It.

She Survived It.

Miss Louisa M. Alcott, says the Boston Herald, was once visiting at a small town in Connecticut, in which only a few days before an exceedingly small child had been born. In the course of conversation the child was spoken of, and Miss Alcott laughingly said: "I have heard that I was a very small infant. In fact, tradition says that I could be put into a quart tankard and the cover replaced."

One old lady, who had been listening attentively, then asked, sympathetically: "And did you live?"

BLOEBAUN HAZED ALA CHAMP CLARK

Wasn't Much Left of a Midshipman When Missourian Got Through With Him.

SOMETHING OF A MASHER, TOO

If Fourth Classman Refused to Introduce Him to Sweetheart, Bumps for Him.

(By Associated Press.) ANNAPOLIS, MD., January 18 .- Hazing of a brutal nature was revealed during the trial of Midshipman Chester A. A. Bloebaum to-day more plainly than in the previous proceedings. Three fourth classmen testified without the slightest hesitation that they had been hazed by Bloebaum until they were utterly exausted, one severe physical exercise after severe accusation was contained in the severe accusation was contained in the testimony of Edgar N. Caldwell, of Glasgow, Kentucky, who said that Floebaum had hazed and abused him because he would not make arrangements for Bloebaum to be introduced to a certain young lady of the fourth classman's "acquaintance." Bloebaum is an appointee of Congressman Champ Clark, who said recently on the floor of the House of Representatives that he would arm a youth he sent to Annapolis with a bowle knife and hatchet.

The trial of Midshipman Minor Meriwether was concluded to-day and given to the court.

Midshipman Charles M. James, of Grinnell, Iowa, a member of the second class, was served to-day with a charge of hazing. The charge is supported by eight specifications, the greatest number of distinct offenses yet charged against a midshipman. Most of the specifications allege that different physical exercises were required, but one or more contain the charge that James used profane and abusive language toward an under classman.

The Archaic Cat.

Japhet looked out of the window and yawned. "Water, water everywhere," he remarked, according to Lippincott's, "I say, Ham, do you suppose cats can swim?" "Don't know, I'm sure. Let's wake Shem and then we'll find out."

"We'd better tie a string 'round her neck," suggested Shem; "then if she can't swim, we can pull her in."

So they caught the cat, tied on a string, and dropped her from the window. "She can!" they shouted, but just then the dinner bell rang. "Plum duff!" they cried, as with one voice, and tumbled down the stairs.

the poor cat found herself being left slowly astern. She called for help as bouldy as she could, for it took all her strength to swim, and the giraffe, who was of a benevolent nature, finally noticed her cries.

"Me thinks," said he, "I hear a fellow-being in distress."

"Oh, don't you care," said the rat with a wicked grin. "It's only that old cat. She's always sitting on the roof to sing."

But the kind-hearted giraffe looked out of the window. Spying poor Mrs. Cat, he But the kind-hearted girane looked out of the window. Spying poor Mrs. Cas, he stretched his long neck to its utmost and finally succeeded in pulling her in.

She lapped her wet fur disconsolately. "More than enough is too much," she said, and her descendants hate water to this very day.

A Cure for Stinginess.

A small church was sadly in want of general repairs, and a meeting was being held to raise funds for that purpose.

The minister having said that to do the work $500 would be required a very wealthy (and equally stingy) member of the congregation rose and said he would give one dollar. Just as he sat down a lump of plaster fell from the celling and hit him upon the head, whereupon he rose hastily and called out that he had made a mistake—he would give fifty dollars. That was too much for an enthusiast present, who, forgetful of everything, called out fervently: "O Lord, hit him again!" A Cure for Stinginess.

A Salve for Royal Dignity.

The late Duke of Clarence and his younger brother, the present Prince of Wales, it is related in Everybody's Magazine, were once at a seaside resort, and the latter persunded his brother to go to a fashionable hotel where there was dancing. The royal sallor immediately found a partner and proceeded to enjoy himself, to the horror of the Duke of Clarence, who had fixed ideas as to the dignity of his rank and was so shocked by the rollicking democracy of Prince George that he called his brother aside and admonished him severely:

"Oh, pshaw," returned the younger brother; "what's the harm? If you don't like it, why don't you go over in the corner and sing, "God save my grand-mother' all by yourself?"

Ought to Have Known the Rules.

Marshall P. Wilder says that the small son of a friend in Brooklyn came home one day with a badly disfigured face. The "old mart took him aside for the usual heart-to-heart talk, "What have you been up to now?" asked he.

"Fightin!," answered the lad sullenly. "And after all I've said to you about fighting!" Rules.

fighting! "He smashed me on the cheek." "How often have I told you that the Good Book bids us turn the other cheek?"

"I dld, dad—honest; but he smashed me on the nose, I call that a foul; so pitched in and licked the stumn' out of him. Dad, he's been to Sunday school just as much as I have, and he ought to have known the rules!"

The Standing Order.

Newlin Haines, of the Atlantic City Hotel Mon's Association, was talking about the odd rules that prevail in many of the cheaper restaurants and cafes.
"For insance," he said, "I go in and order oysters, saidad and dessert, and set a napking the the man next to me, because he has said ordered ple and milk, can't have a napkin on any account. There are napkin on any account.